- Edie reported on her meeting with the Grant advisor from Homeland Security. Edie completed the preliminary application for funding to contract SWRPC to assist with the Emergency Operations Plan Update which is due for 2021. This will be a matching "in-Kind" grant so credit will be given for meeting attendance by each department head and official to reach the total match. Edie reported that additional COVID-19 related funding may still be available through September 2021. Several expenses will be considered for submission and review for possible reimbursement. Also, the new municipal funding from the federal "Rescue" package has been announced but precise expenditure qualification is not yet clear. More information is expected from the Governor's office.

- With nothing further, David made a motion to adjourn.
Maury seconded.
The motion carried 3-0.

11:18 AM Meeting Adjourned.
